

About Authors, Editors and Organizations

Viera Báčová (1950), social psychologist, university teacher, head of Department of Experimental Psychology of Slovak Academy of Sciences. She collaborates with Aspekt.

Hana Bednaříková (1974), psychologist, she works in the private sector as a consultant for human resources development and facilitator.

Monika Bosá (1974), studied philosophy and history at Faculty of Philosophy Comenius University in Bratislava and as a graduate student at Faculty of Pedagogy Comenius University. She is a co-founder and director of the NGO EsFem.

Jana Cviková (1963), co-founder of the Feminist Publishing and Educational Project Aspekt founded in 1993. She translates from German.

Ivana Červenková (1977), studied psychology at Faculty of Philosophy Comenius University and as a graduate student at Department of Psychology and Pathopsychology of Faculty of Pedagogy Comenius University.

Paula Jójárt (1977), studied psychology at Faculty of Philosophy Comenius University. She graduated from the Society for Higher Learning in Bratislava and holds a degree in gender studies from Central European University in Budapest.

Jana Juráňová (1957), co-founder of the Feminist Publishing and Educational Project Aspekt founded in 1993. She is a writer and translator.

Ľuba Kobová (1978), studied philosophy and aesthetics at Faculty of Philosophy Comenius University and gender studies at Central European University in Budapest. She has collaborated with Aspekt since 1998.

Ľubica Lacinová (1959), studied nuclear physics, biophysics and art photography. She specializes in animal physiology and molecular biology. She has worked in Czechoslovakia, Slovakia (where she currently lives), in the USA and Germany. She collaborates with Aspekt.

Kateřina Liřková (1976), sociologist, postgraduate student at Faculty of Social Studies in Brno, a member of the Gender Centre of Faculty of Social Studies of Masaryk University. She has collaborated with Aspekt since 1998.

Katarína Minarovičová (1976), teaches mathematics, ethics and civics. She was a graduate student at the Department of Ethics and Civics Education at Faculty of Pedagogy Comenius University. She has collaborated with Aspekt since 2002.

Sylvia Ondrisová (1973), finished her doctoral studies in psychology. She works as a psychotherapist, and as a trainer and project coordinator closely collaborates with the NGO Citizen and Democracy.

Andrea Sváková (1977), studied psychology and English at Faculty of Pedagogy Comenius University in Bratislava, gender studies at Central European University in Budapest and psychology at Faculty of Philosophy Comenius University.

Juliana Szolnokiová (1946), book editor and translator, since 1995 she has been working at Aspekt. She is the author of more than 25 book translations from Russian and Hungarian.

Citizen and Democracy (Občan a demokracia)

Founded in 1992, Citizen and Democracy is an NGO with a nation-wide activities. Its main activity is to foster principles of democracy and strengthen civic participation. The organization collaborates with experts in law, psychology and sociology to actively promote human rights in everyday life. It organizes trainings programs and publishes materials indented for experts as well as general public.

www.oad.sk

Aspekt

The women's interest association Aspekt was founded in 1993 in Bratislava. Its main activity is the feminist publishing and education project focusing on gender sensitization of the public. The organization publishes the feminist cultural magazine ASPEKT (in 1993 – 2004 published in the printed form, at present in the form of the webzine ASPEKTin), organizes educational events, manages a library, provides expert consultations, collaborates with the media and since 1996 also publishes books. The organization has rich international contacts, and cooperates with many NGOs in Slovakia esp. with The Fifth Woman Initiative and the NGO Pro-Choice.

www.aspekt.sk

pinkandblueworld.sk (ruzovyamodrysvet.sk)

Is another name for the project officially entitled Gender Sensitization in the Educational Process at Elementary and Secondary Schools as Preparation for Future Job Desegregation. The project is realized within the Initiative EQUAL supported by the European Social Fund and its duration is March 2005 – March 2008 . It is aimed at increasing gender sensitivity and gender awareness of teachers and elementary and secondary school pupils. The project is realized by the development partnership of four organizations – Aspekt (the main leader, Bratislava), Citizen and Democracy (Bratislava), School – the Foundation of Life, non-profit fund at Elementary School Gorkého 21 (Trnava), Puppet Theater at Crossroads (Banská Bystrica). It also cooperates with other organizations and experts.